5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1.1 GENERAL CONDITIONS WHICH APPLY TO ALL THIRD PARTY AUTHORITIES

Only you may appoint a Third Party to access or withdraw from your CMA account, in which case, you will be bound by their transactions and instructions to us in the same way as if you had performed them yourself.

Withdrawals may be made for any amount and may be made at any time.

Where a future date is specified for a withdrawal, we may decline any other withdrawal request if there would be insufficient funds in your CMA account to cover the future dated payment and those other withdrawal requests.

If you appoint a Third Party to withdraw from your CMA account, they will also automatically have the ability to enquire on your CMA account.

You indemnify us against all losses, liabilities and costs incurred directly or indirectly:

- as a result of the appointment of a Third Party, and
- in connection with any action by a Third Party under their appointment or any payment made from your CMA account on their instruction (including any instruction that exceeds their authority).

You release us from claims and liabilities in connection with any act or omission relating to the appointment of a Third Party to your CMA account.

However, we remain liable for any losses, liabilities and costs which by operation of law we cannot exclude.

The Third Party Authority takes effect on the date when we amend our records to note the appointment of the change and continues until cancelled. You can cancel this authority by telling us in writing but cancellation also takes effect only from the date when we amend our records to note the change.

Third Parties may not set up a Regular Investment Option on your CMA account. Third Parties cannot give other Third Parties access or authority on your account, other than persons nominated by the Adviser Firm.

We may cancel the appointment of a Third Party as an authority on your CMA account by telling you in writing.

In the event of the death of the CMA account holder all Third Party Authorities will automatically terminate.

1.2 THIRD PARTY AUTHORITY TO COMPANY OR FIRM (SUCH AS ADVISER FIRM)

Where you give Third Party Authority to a company or firm (such as Adviser Firm):

- it will provide us with such details as we, from time to time, require in relation to the person(s) authorised to operate your CMA account under this authority, including identification and specimen signature(s)
- you acknowledge and agree that the company or firm and the people nominated by the company or firm can withdraw from your CMA account in accordance with the authority that you have given it
- we will only act on withdrawal requests from the company or firm, if the person requesting the withdrawal has been nominated by it
- the company or firm must advise us if any of the nominated person(s) no longer has authority. If we are not advised in writing then that person may still transact on your CMA account. You cannot claim that the person is not acting for you until we are advised in writing by the company or firm.

1.3 CONDITIONS RELATING TO EACH OF THE LEVELS OF AUTHORITY

Enquiry Access:

- you authorise the Third Party to have access to information about your CMA account
- you do not authorise the Third Party to make withdrawals from your CMA account, make any changes to your CMA account details, close your CMA account or enable use of your cheque book or debit card, should you have one.

Fee Payment Authority:

- you authorise the Third Party to have Enquiry Access and to make withdrawals from your CMA account for the purpose of paying their fees and regulatory fees.

General Withdrawal Authority:

- you authorise the Third Party to make payments and withdrawals in accordance with the terms set out under 'Fee Payment Authority' above, and
- in addition, you authorise the Third Party to make payments and withdrawals for any purpose including settlement or investment using online, electronic and telephone withdrawal services or by any other method agreed in writing by us
- you do not authorise the Third Party to make any changes to your CMA account details, close your account or enable use of your cheque book or debit card, should you have one, and
- your stockbroker or Adviser Firm has the right to place a hold on funds in your CMA account, for future payment purposes.

Full Authorised Signatory (individuals):

- you authorise the Third Party to make payments and withdrawals in accordance with the terms set under 'General Withdrawal Authority' above, and
- in addition, this authority allows the Third Party to use the cheque book and/or debit card facilities, change details on your account and close your CMA account. This does not allow the authorised signatory to appoint other authorised signatories to the account except to the extent permitted under clause 1.2.
