Linked Cash Account - for trade settlement

To settle transactions on your OpenMarkets account you will need a Cash Account with one of our approved providers, unless you wish to settle your account using a margin loan.

Providers	Cash product	New cash account	Existing cash account
Macquarie	Cash Management Account	Indicate in this application	Macquarie Third Party Authority Form
Bankwest	Cash Management Account	Download application	Bankwest Third Party Authority Form
ANZ	Cashactive Account*	Indicate in this application	N/A

*For overseas residents we are only able to open an OpenMarkets ANZ Cashactive account.

New Cash Account required

If you do not have an existing Cash Account, we can either:

- 1.Pass on the information in this application to initiate a new online Macquarie Cash Management Account (CMA)application on your behalf (an activation link will then be emailed to all applicants)
- 2.Establish an OpenMarkets ANZ Cashactive Account (a closed trust account) on your behalf. For information on how this account operates visit openmarkets.com.au/anz-cashactive-account
- 3.You may mail us a completed Bankwest CMA application and attach to this form along with original certified copies of your ID as outlined in the Appendix.

Existing Cash Account

If you have an existing Cash Account in the same name, simply provide your BSB/Account details in Section 5 of this application and download/complete the corresponding third party authority form above and attach to this form.

Communication from the Banks New Cash Accounts only

After OpenMarkets has submitted your application on your behalf to your provider of choice, you will receive a Welcome Letter directly from the bank along with your internet banking details. See below for bank's communications process.

Providers	Welcome letter with internet banking details	Internet banking PIN / password
Macquarie	Mailed to your residential address	Mailed to your residential address
ANZ	Emailed to you by OpenMarkets	N/A
Bankwest	Mailed to your residential address	Mailed to your residential address

Using your margin loan - for trade settlement

To use your existing margin loan to settle transactions on your account, please provide the details in Section 4 and complete the corresponding third party authority form below and attach to this form. This authority allows OpenMarkets to check your stock and cash positions to minimise settlement failure.

A linked cash account is not required for margin loan trading applications.

Providers	Third party authority form
Leveraged margin lending	Leveraged third party authority form
NAB margin lending	NAB third party authority form
All other margin lenders	Margin third party authority form

Use of Email - for logins and contract notes

At least one email address is required to receive contract notes and to establish at least one trading platform login. Additional emails can be provided for other applicants but it must be the person's own unique email address.

What happens next?

1. Once all documents are received and you have satisfied our identification requirements, your application will be processed within 2-4 business days. Please note HIN transfers may take an additional 3 days to process.
2. For applications requiring a new Macquarie CMA only:
An activation email will be sent to each applicant with a link to review your application online and consent to Macquarie's terms and conditions. To avoid delays, please action this ASAP. For all other new CMA applications, the above does not apply.
3. An OpenMarkets Welcome Email will be sent to all applicants who have provided an email address with the details of your OpenMarkets trading account, cash account details and platform login.
4. Transfer funds into your new or existing cash account at least 24 hours prior to trading.
5. Log in to your chosen platform and start trading!
